THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD (OBSERVED)

May 16, 2021

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“I’ll see you soon!” How often have we found these words on our own lips as we leave family and friends, with certainty that time together will soon be had again.

“I’ll see you soon!” says Jesus as He departs and ascends into heaven. And though it has not been hours or days or even weeks, but nearly two thousand years, we still hold to the certainty of His promise that we shall see Him again soon at His time.

Until that day, though, we are wise to not stay looking up into the sky, as the disciples began to do so long ago. Rather, we heed His mission to make disciples and keep ourselves prepared for that day. Even as we long to see Him soon, we know that Jesus is enough for us every day, and we take comfort in the fact that our ascended Lord Jesus remains present with us now, in this life, even amid troubles and trials.

We hold on to His promises by the faith given, and we anticipate that joyful day when He will come again in the same way He was taken up into heaven.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
+Pastor Griebenaw

Amen.
- P Almighty God, our heavenly Father, has had mercy upon us and has given His only Son to die for us and for His sake forgives us all our sins. FIRST READING

Acts 1:1-11

P The First Reading is from the Acts of the Apostles, chapter one.

<sup>1</sup>In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, <sup>2</sup>until the day when He was taken up, after He had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen. <sup>3</sup>To them He presented Himself alive after His suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup>And while staying with them He ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, “which,” He said, “you heard from Me; <sup>5</sup>for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”

<sup>6</sup>So when they had come together, they asked Him, “Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?” <sup>7</sup>He said to them, “It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by His own authority. <sup>8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” <sup>9</sup>And when He had said these things, as they were looking on, He was lifted up, and a cloud took Him out of their sight. <sup>10</sup>And while they were gazing into heaven as He went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, <sup>11</sup>and said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw Him go into heaven.”

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

He has given Him dominion over the works | of His hands;*

He has put all things un- | der His feet.

EPISTLE

Ephesians 1:15–23

P The Epistle is from Ephesians, chapter one.

<sup>15</sup>For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, <sup>16</sup>I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, <sup>17</sup>that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him, <sup>18</sup>having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which He has called you, what are the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup>and what is the immeasurable greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His great might <sup>20</sup>that He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup>far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. <sup>22</sup>And He put all things under His feet and gave Him as head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup>which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA & VERSE

Romans 6:9; Matthew 28:20b (NKJV)

C Al-le - lu - ia. Al-le - lu - ia. Al-le - lu - ia.

Alleluia. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over Him. Alleluia.

Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. Alleluia.

HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 24:44–53

P The Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke, the twenty-fourth chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

<sup>44</sup>Then He said to them, “These are My words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.”

<sup>45</sup>Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, <sup>46</sup>and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, <sup>47</sup>and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>You are witnesses of these things.

<sup>49</sup>And behold, I am sending the Promise of My Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.”

<sup>50</sup>Then He led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up His hands He blessed them. <sup>51</sup>While He blessed them, He parted from them and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup>And they worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>53</sup>and were continually in the temple blessing God.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

NICENE CREED

C I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life ✠ of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

(1 Timothy 2:1–4)

- P In peace, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P In praise of our King who has gone up with a shout and the sound of a trumpet, ascended in triumph and seated at God's right hand, that we would ever rejoice and live in the truth of His victory for us, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For the proclamation of the Church as she goes into all the world and to the whole creation with the Gospel, that many may believe, be baptized, and be saved, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.

- P That in the midst of our enemies, God would calm our fears and fix our eyes on Christ, seated at His right hand, until at last He makes His enemies His footstool, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For Joseph and all our leaders, that as the Son will shatter kings when He executes judgment on the nations, He would guard them from acting in ways that will garner His wrath; and that God would give them wisdom to govern us in accord with His righteous ways, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For all who suffer in this mortal life, that the Lord would deliver them from sickness of body and mind and every other power of the enemy, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P For all who commune, that God would keep us from hardness of heart and unbelief, helping us to believe the witness of those who saw Christ after He had risen, so we may joyfully recline at table with Him today, eating His body and drinking His blood in a worthy manner, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.
- P Lord God, heavenly Father, we here remember the sufferings and death of Your dear Son, Jesus Christ, for our salvation. Praising His victorious resurrection from the dead, we draw strength from His ascension before You, where He ever stands for us as our own High Priest. Gather us together, we pray, from the ends of the earth to celebrate with all the faithful the marriage feast of the Lamb in His kingdom, which has no end. Graciously receive our prayers, deliver and preserve us, for to You alone we give all glory, honor and worship, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- C Amen.

The live-stream service concludes with the following:

LORD'S PRAYER

Matthew 6:9–13

- P Taught by our Lord and trusting His promises, we are bold to pray:
- C Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
- For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

CONCLUDING COLLECT

- P Let us pray.
Lord God, creator of heaven and earth, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we praise You for the abundant mercy that You this day so richly have provided us, blessing us not only with daily bread for our bodies but also with heavenly food for our souls. Grant that Your living and powerful Word may abide in our hearts, working mightily in us to Your glory and for our salvation. We commit ourselves to Your divine protection and fatherly care. Let Your holy angels be with us that the evil foe may have no power over us. Look in mercy on Your Church and deliver it from all danger and adversities. By Your Holy Spirit comfort and strengthen all who are in affliction or distress, and grant Your abiding peace to us all; through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

✠ SOLI DEO GLORIA ✠
(TO GOD ALONE BE THE GLORY)

SOME FINAL THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

Brothers and Sisters,

Happy Ascension Day! Our Lord fills the heavens with His glory! He fills you and me! Praise be to God!

First, I want to share with you a great picture of Leo playing with the “marble run” that Grandpa and Grandma sent for his fifth birthday. I think the “crazy eyes” give a hint as to the unbridled joy he is feeling!

I write this letter as the wind rages through El Centro—quite a wind but very welcome because with it comes some cooler weather! It is doubly welcome in our home because <cue the ominous music> our air conditioning has stopped working AGAIN (see the photo of my exasperated face)!

Now, the Old Adam in me is grumbling . . . (nothing like writing a pastor’s letter with a grumpy countenance, eh?) . . . but the New Man called to mind the refrain from Psalm 42:(5, 11), “Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise Him, my salvation and my God.”

All things in life are given to us by God—lent to us, if you will, for our use, for our benefit, and for the benefit of our neighbors. The Lord has given to my family innumerable blessings, including the air conditioning, as well as the means to have this repaired. And should He see fit to withhold air conditioning for a time, well, it would be rather impetuous of me to complain, especially given that this is a luxury many others cannot afford.

Perhaps you are facing a struggle in your own life—something more challenging than air conditioning? Do the words of David from Psalm 42:(3) sound familiar to you—“My tears have been my food day and night, while they say to me all the day long, ‘Where is your God?’”

In the midst of struggles, it can be a challenge to “keep the faith.” Thankfully, God keeps the faithful; by this I mean that even if we are faithless, God is faithful (2 Tim 2:13), and He never ceases calling us, seeking us, and returning us to Himself through His Word and Sacraments, and through our brothers and sisters in the faith.

The most readily available medicine for the downcast soul is God’s Holy Word; it is also, I think, the most underused remedy. Like all strong antiseptics, the Word of God stings our wounds and is bitter on our sin-laced tongues, but after drawing out the infection, God’s Word is soothing and sweet, the holy balm for our battered souls.

Not only is God’s Word a curative but is, even more importantly, a preventative, but only as we continue with the prescription by staying in His Word: reading, hearing, studying, and digesting it daily. So I want to invite you to join me for our study of the Psalms each Tuesday at Noon on “Zoom” This week we are studying Psalm 41. Then tune-in or come by in-person on Wednesday night at 7:00pm for our short prayer service (ending between 7:30pm and 7:45pm).

- To join the study on your computer, go to <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/7603525715>
- To join by phone, call either “669-900-9128” or “346-248-7799” and enter 7603525715#

Lastly, please continue to mail your tithes and offerings to the church's post office box: Evangelical-Lutheran Church, PO Box 1530, El Centro, CA 92244-1530.
