

Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

+ Matthew 25:13

THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

November 8, 2020

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The final weeks of the Church Year are a time for us to focus on the “last things”—teaching concerning the End of Days. Just an aside: We are and have been living in the End of Days/Last Days ever since Christ’s death and resurrection. When Holy Scripture speaks of the “rapture” and the “thousand year reign,” these are allegories and figurative speech, meant to emphasize what our Verse of the Day teaches clearly: “Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour [of our Lord’s return]” (Matthew 25:13).

These “last things” are not always easy to hear. For instance, the Old Testament reading tells us that the Day of the Lord is “darkness, and not light” (Amos 5:18, 20) for all who trust in their own righteousness and piety. The Lord will not accept their “burnt offerings and grain offerings,” nor will He look upon their “peace offerings” (Amos 5:22). Instead, He desires a heart of faith that trusts in Him, which lets “justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream” (Amos 5:24) in love for the neighbor. In order for the “lamps” of our lives to burn brightly with such love, we must be filled with the “oil” of forgiveness through faith in our Bridegroom, Jesus Christ (Matthew 25:1–4).

Therefore, as we await His coming, wisdom directs us “to the dealers” (Matt. 25:9), that is, to the ministers of His Gospel. Thus we wait upon the Lord, and we “encourage one another with these words” (1 Thessalonians 4:18). Waking or sleeping, we are prepared to meet Him when He comes “with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God,” and “we will always be with the Lord” (1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17).

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 28:19b; [18:20]

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

[Hebrews 10:22]

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 124:8

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Psalms 32:5

Kneel (or remain standing)

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P Almighty God, our maker and redeemer, we poor sinners confess unto You that we are by nature sinful and unclean and that we have sinned against You by thought, word, and deed. Wherefore we flee for refuge to Your infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Your grace for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

C O most merciful God, who has given Your only-begotten Son to die for us, have mercy upon us and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins; and by Your Holy Spirit increase in us true knowledge of You and of Your will and true obedience to Your Word, to the end that by Your grace we may come to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

P Almighty God, our heavenly Father, has had mercy upon us and has given His only Son to die for us and for His sake forgives us all our sins. To those who believe on His name He gives power to become the children of God and has promised them His Holy Spirit. He that believes and is baptized shall be saved.

Grant this, Lord, unto us all.

Mark 16:16; John 1:12

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Amos 5:18–24

P The Old Testament Reading is from Amos, chapter five.

¹⁸Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD! Why would you have the day of the LORD? It is darkness, and not light, ¹⁹as if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him, or went into the house and leaned his hand against the wall, and a serpent bit him. ²⁰Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light, and gloom with no brightness in it?

²¹“I hate, I despise your feasts, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies. ²²Even though you offer Me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; and the peace offerings of your fattened animals, I will not look upon them. ²³Take away from Me the noise of your songs; to the melody of your harps I will not listen. ²⁴But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.”

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

Revelation 7:14b; Psalm 84:5

The pastor and congregation chant responsively.

These are the ones coming out of the great tribu- | lation.*

They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood | of the Lamb.

Blessèd are those whose strength is | in You,*
in whose heart are the highways to | Zion.

EPISTLE READING

1 Thessalonians 4:13–18

P The Epistle is from First John, chapter three.

¹³But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. ¹⁴For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep.

¹⁵For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. ¹⁸Therefore encourage one another with these words.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Matthew 25:1-13

☐ The Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew, the twenty-fifth chapter.

☐ Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] ¹“The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. ²Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. ³For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, ⁴but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. ⁵As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept.

⁶“But at midnight there was a cry, ‘Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.’ ⁷Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. ⁸And the foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’ ⁹But the wise answered, saying, ‘Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves.’ ¹⁰And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut.

¹¹“Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, ‘Lord, Lord, open to us.’ ¹²But he answered, ‘Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.’

¹³“Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”

☐ This is the Gospel of the Lord.

☐ Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

NICENE CREED

☐ I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.

And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures
 and ascended into heaven
 and sits at the right hand of the Father.
 And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
 whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Lord and giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified,
 who spoke by the prophets.
 And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
 I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
 and I look for the resurrection of the dead
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

✠ SOLI DEO GLORIA ✠
(TO GOD ALONE BE THE GLORY)

SOME FINAL THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

Brothers and sisters,

Outside of Armageddon—when the forces of Heaven and Hell will be pitched in the epic final battle of all things—there is one war that begins anew this week. This conflict began years ago and it will rage for years to come. It is a battle between dark and light, between good and great! No two forces have been so diametrically opposed as these have been. There is no room for compromise or reconciliation. And to be clear, I'm not talking about politics (that was last week's news!)

This week brings the release of the new Playstation 5 (Yay!) . . . and the new Xbox Series X (Boo!). And you can guess which camp I support, eh? I have a Playstation 4 (which I adore) but I can't help but salivate for the latest and greatest gaming system. The new Playstation is 5.7 times faster and can output graphics up to 8K (four times the resolution of my current TV and 16 times the resolution of my PS4)!

Now before some of you “tune-out” because you're not video game players (I know it isn't everyone's cup of tea), let me tell you my conundrum: when would I find the time to do the new PS5 justice in terms of playing time? I have responsibilities to which I must attend (as husband and father and pastor). Even now, I find it will be several days (sometimes weeks) between gaming sessions.

That is the challenge, right? To find that balance between responsibility and recreation? Perhaps you're familiar with the old proverb “All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.” Of course, the corollary is “All play and no work makes Jack a mere toy.”

So the moral of today's letter (aside from some much-needed levity) is “Don't forget to make time to do something that brings you excitement and joy; but also do not neglect your God-given vocations.” And when I type it out, it sounds so simple . . . if only it was as easy in practice, right?

One vocation common to us all is that of “Christian” and a big part of that is the Third Commandment, that “We should fear and love God so that we do not despise preaching and His Word, but hold it sacred and gladly hear and learn it.” So please join me on Tuesday at Noon (ending by 1:00pm) for our Study of the Psalms on “Zoom.” We socialize for the first 15 minutes and work through the psalm from 12:15pm to 12:45pm, finishing by 1:00pm. This week we study Psalm 29.

And tune-in to Facebook each Wednesday at 7:00pm for a short service of prayer and meditation on the psalm. The service folder is on our website (www.GraceLutheranElCentro.org) and the live-stream is on our Facebook page (www.facebook.com/GraceLutheranElCentro).
