

Man ate of the bread of the angels; He sent them food in abundance. + Psalm 78:25

THE NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

August 2, 2020

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Happiness and contentment are elusive, especially in times of strife and affliction. No matter how many “things” we gather or how much wealth we accumulate, our hearts remain restless for things new and different, for the promise of something better.

Saint Paul reminds us that contentment does not come from having everything our hearts desire; rather, it comes with faith in the Lord, who is gracious and merciful and supplies all our needs.

Today, we hear the terrible news of John the Baptist’s martyrdom and of a crowd restless with hunger. In the midst of it all, Jesus shows forth grace to rest our fears and satisfy us with all we need. God grants us faith that we may learn to trust in Him and to find contentment and peace in His grace, which is sufficient for all things.

READINGS

FIRST READING

Isaiah 55:1–5

P The Old Testament Reading is from Isaiah, chapter 55.

- ¹ “Come, everyone who thirsts,
come to the waters;
and he who has no money,
come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk
without money and without price.
² Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread,
and your labor for that which does not satisfy?
Listen diligently to Me, and eat what is good,
and delight yourselves in rich food.
³ Incline your ear, and come to Me;
hear, that your soul may live;
and I will make with you an everlasting covenant,
My steadfast, sure love for David.
⁴ Behold, I made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander for the peoples.
⁵ Behold, you shall call a nation that you do not know,
and a nation that did not know you shall run to you,
because of the LORD your God, and of the Holy One of Israel,
for He has glorified you.”

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Romans 9:1–13

P The Epistle is from Romans, chapter 9.

¹I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit—
²that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh.
⁴They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises. ⁵To them belong the patriarchs, and from their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen.

⁶But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, ⁷and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but “Through Isaac shall your offspring be named.” ⁸This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. ⁹For this is what the promise said:
“About this time next year I will return and Sarah shall have a son.” ¹⁰And not only so, but also when Rebecca had conceived children by one man, our forefather Isaac, ¹¹though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad—in order that God’s purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of His call— ¹²she was told, “The older will serve the younger.”
¹³As it is written, “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 14:13-21

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the fourteenth chapter.

Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

¹³Now when Jesus heard [about the death of John], He withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by Himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴When He went ashore He saw a great crowd, and He had compassion on them and healed their sick. ¹⁵Now when it was evening, the disciples came to Him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

¹⁶But Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat."

¹⁷They said to Him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish."

¹⁸And He said, "Bring them here to Me." ¹⁹Then He ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass, and taking the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven and said a blessing. Then He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. ²¹And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

† SOLI DEO GLORIA †
(TO GOD ALONE BE THE GLORY)

SOME FINAL THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

Brothers and sisters,

So we bought a Facebook Portal TV for my parents and got one for ourselves. I had toyed with the idea for several months, usually deciding that it was an extravagance because we are able to do Facetime on our Apple iPads. But the thought kept nagging at me.

What finally won me over was the thought that the image of my parents on our television would be much larger—almost life-size—and little Sam might recognize Grandma and Grandpa as people and not just moving shapes and colors on a small screen. And it seemed to work! Sam giggled and stared at Grandma and Grandpa (he really cranked-up the cute factor!) and interacted with them somewhat.

We had a good, long visit. It felt like we were hanging out together in one big virtual living room. Without having to hold onto something in my hands but just sitting back, drinking coffee or chasing after Leo, and talking was liberating. It felt more “normal” to be hands-free. And having the chance to be a family with my parents made me realize that this purchase was a good one—a necessary one.

As we turn the calendar page to the eighth month of this year (and the twentieth week of isolation), I confess that I am lonely. Holly has said the same. And, though he doesn’t seem to have the words to express it, I think Leo is feeling it, and Sam, also. I would bet you’re feeling it, too.

It’s okay to feel lonely and it’s okay to say it isn’t good! Humanity was made for relationships: in relationship with God but also, and almost just as important, in relationship with each other. We are supposed to be interacting with others, be that work or school or church or a club or the grocery store.

We are supposed to be present—physically and spiritually—with others who bear the image and likeness of God. “It is not good that man should be alone,” said God (Gen. 2:18). And if God says it isn’t good . . . well, that’s pretty bad! But for now, we endure this separation and work around it.

And one way that we can feel less alone is being able to see other people and talk with them—no masks, just faces. And that’s exactly what we do with our Study of the Psalms on “Zoom” every Tuesday at Noon (ending by 1:00pm). We socialize for the first 15 minutes and work through the psalm from 12:15pm to 12:45pm, concluding by 1:00pm. This week we study Psalm 15. Please do join me.

- To join the study on your computer, go to <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/7603525715>
- To join by phone, call either “669-900-9128” or “346-248-7799” and enter 7603525715#

And tune-in to Facebook each Wednesday night at 7:00pm for a short (30 minute) service of prayer and meditation on the psalm. The service folder will be on our website (www.GraceLutheranElCentro.org) and the live-stream will be on our Facebook page (www.facebook.com/GraceLutheranElCentro).
